WEST BERGHOLT CONCERT BAND

GRAHAM WILSON

The Conductor

Our conductor joined the band as a 12 year old clarinettist moving to Alto Sax in his late teens.

He has been conducting the band for over 30 years, having taken over the baton shortly after returning from the University of York, where he set up & conducted the University of York Concert Band.

The Band(s)

West Bergholt Band was formed in 1978 by a popular instrument teacher from West Bergholt to provide young musicians with the experience & enjoyment of a full-sized concert band.

The band quickly grew to over 60 (predominantly secondary school & sixth form) members and has since matured to contain players from 8 to 80, often with parents playing alongside their children. Our mix of young & previously young is key to keeping the band vibrant & successful.

Both our bands are about playing music for enjoyment, and with a library of over 900 pieces from Beethoven to Lady Gaga, we have music for everyone.

The band performs regular concerts at venues such as St Botolph's and Clacton's West Cliff Theatre, and has raised £50k (since we started keeping records) for local & national charities.

Joining

New members of all ages are always welcome to our Training Band (Grades 1-4), our Concert Band (Grade 4+), or both.

The band is all about enjoyment, and playing in a band is a great way to improve your playing & experiencing a wide range of musical styles.

There's no audition – just turn up to Heathlands School West Bergholt (CO6 3JF) on any term-time Friday evening. Training Band is 6pm-7pm, Concert Band is 7pm-9pm, and many people play in both.

You'll be made to feel welcome, and someone will sit with you and help you get used to playing in a band.
